CITY COUNCIL MEETING

REAL ESTATE LICENSE FEE.

Solicitor to Report on Whether or not the City has Choice of License Fee or Taxation of Floor Space—Plumbers Interested in Plumbing By-Law.

"The city council met last evening. Present the Mayor and Aldermen May, Clark, Fraser, Griesbach, Plead Bellamy and Boyle. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. A communication was read from Mr. Henry Gilbert, stating that as the Edmonton charter provided that a business was liable to taxation, and also provides that no license fee shall be charged in respect of such a business if subject to taxation, therefore he asked for the return of the real-estate license fee of $50 paid by him to the city.

Alderman Boyle expressed his opinion that the real estate dealers should be assessed for floor space, and that under the charter it was illegal to collect a license fee from them. Alderman Clark was of the opinion that the license fee was in force until the report of the assessors came in when we would see whether or not real-estate men were assessed for floor space. The mayor was of the opinion that the by-law under which the license fee was collected would hold good. He said it was not the intention to try to collect both a tax and license from real estate men.

Mr. Gilbert addressed the council. He said he did not wish to imply that the council desired to be unfair. His objection to the license fee was that it provided for only one business, so if he wished to add insurance to his business he must pay another license while the charter said a business tax shall be collected which would cover the whole business. The city solicitor being asked for his opinion said the charter had two conflicting clauses referring to this question that were somewhat contradictory and he would prefer to give a written opinion. On motion of Ald. Clark and Plead. Mr. Gilbert's communication was laid on the table for one week and the matter was referred to the solicitor and commissioners to report at the next meeting.

Mr. T. M. Grindley addressed the council. He said he understood the council was about to amend the plumbing by-law and in that event the plumbers wished to make some recommendations. The engineer said the question was not ready to present to the council.

The report of the voting on the by-laws was received and filed.

A communication was read from Mr. J. H. Gariepy complaining that last year the council had decided to build a sidewalk on the south side of MacKenzie avenue from First to Ninth street and no work had yet been done on it. Alderman Clark thought the sidewalk should be built. It appears that some railroad difficulties were in the way. Alderman Fraser objected to it being built as it might be torn up again on account of railways coming in. Aldermen Boyle and Griesbach favored building the sidewalk. Alderman Bellamy said there might be a different lot of property holders now from those of last year and a new petition should be required now. On motion of Plead and Fraser the petition of last year is to be referred back to the signers for a new petition and Mr. Gariepy is to be notified.

The matter of the twelve foot cement walk on First street came up again. The property holders wanted at twelve feet wide and the council had only approved of a ten foot walk. On motion of Ald. Clark and May the request for a twelve foot walk was granted.

The following petitions were presented: the grade of Sutherland street from First street to Government avenue at a cost of $250 to be paid for in frontage tax. A six foot plank walk on the east side of Eighth street from McKay to Hardisty avenue at a frontage cost of $250. A six foot plank walk on south side of Peace avenue from First to Eighth street at a cost of $1250 all but $300 to be born by frontage tax.

A petition was presented requesting that Fifth street from Victoria avenue to the top of the hill be narrowed the sidewalk moved out and boulevards arranged. On motion of Aldermen May and Clark the matter was referred to the commissioner of public works for a report upon the whole question of the construction of narrower roadways and boulevards on residential streets.

A report was read from Alderman Bellamy, chairman of the streets and parks committee, to the effect that as it was decided this city had not power to purchase parks he could make no report. The minutes were then looked up and it was found that the decision was to the opposite effect.

A by-law was passed providing for the privilege being granted business men on Jasper avenue to erect steps in front of their places of business where required on account of the laying of the cement walks. The by-law provides that parties constructing steps shall be liable for any accidents caused by the same.

The commissioners reported that they had discussed with Mrs. Donald Ross the acquiring of land adjoining McKay avenue to make a more convenient passing of teams from First to Second street. The cost would amount to $725. The expense of opening the roadway would be about $150, making a total cost of $875. The report was received and filed. On motion of Aldermen Fraser and Clark it was decided to have a former report of the engineer carried out to expend $350 in grading this part of McKay avenue.

On motion of Aldermen Clark and May the following accounts were ordered to be paid when properly certified to.

NEW MINISTERS NAMED

BY A CONSERVATIVE ORGAN.

A Winnipeg Paper Gives the Supposed Composition of the Saskatchewan Government

[Winnipeg, Aug. 19.—The Telegram professes to give on reliable authority the composition of the first Saskatchewan government as follows: Premier and Minister of Public Works, Walter Scott; Attorney-General, J. H. Lamont; Minister of Education, J. H. Calder, who runs in Moose Jaw; Minister of Agriculture, J. M. Douglas. The latter only is doubtful as he may go to the Senate.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—Professor Walter Denton, of New York, has been given charge of a party to investigate the zinc deposits of British Columbia. They will begin operations on September 1; meeting probably at Nelson, B.C.

Chas. Howard Widdifield, Pictou, Ont., has been appointed junior judge of Grey County.

Representations to the Government favor holding Thanksgiving the last Monday in October. Railway ticket agents support the proposed change.

T. L. Simmons, assistant engineer of the railway commission, has gone to Dawson to investigate the application of the Klondike Mines Ry. Co. to deviate from the line already approved.

The Imperial Government have asked for a copy of the Quebec Act, imposing a license of three hundred dollars on commercial travellers from outside the province together with a report of the circumstances under which the act was passed. There is strong criticism of the act in Britain.

THE TORONTO EXHIBIT

The question of Edmonton's privileges in the car for Toronto exhibition is still in doubt. Though the car is to leave Calgary on Wednesday and the Calgary Herald announced that half of it was for Edmonton exhibits, yet nothing can be learned officially about it. Secretary Fisher of the board of trade wired Mr. W. Toole, of the C. P. R., to Calgary yesterday and received the following reply, "Have wired Winnipeg for instructions re your exhibits to Toronto, will advise you quickly as possible."

It is a pretty state of affairs if half this car is for Edmonton, that the authorities here should have to learn of it by accident and then instructions should have to be asked from Winnipeg about it. Over two weeks ago the board of trade secretary wrote Mr. Toole asking if any provision would be made for sending an exhibit from here to Toronto, the reply was that the matter would be taken up. Evidently nothing was done or instructions would not have to come from Winnipeg now.

The car containing the exhibits leaves Calgary on Wednesday, so there is very little time and it is quite probable that the matter will be deliberately hushed up so that the Edmonton district will have either no exhibit or a very small one that at least is the evident design of those in charge.

A DISPLAY OF FARM PRODUCTS

The Bulletin is desirous of making a window display of Alberta farm products for Inauguration Day, September 1st, and will be greatly obliged if friends throughout the country will send or bring to the office samples of grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables grown during the present season. There will be thousands of visitors in Edmonton on Inauguration Day and the opportunity should not be lost to impress upon them the capabilities of Alberta. For a decade the Bulletin has been telling the world about the qualities of Alberta's soil and climate. We would like now to demonstrate in this practical way that our claims have been justified. Samples brought in will be labelled with the name and address of the producer, will be taken care of and returned if so desired. The season will be sufficiently advanced to make possible a display of ripe grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables of all kinds, native and cultivated and we rely upon our friends to co-operate in making this exhibit thoroughly worthy the occasion and representative of the agricultural resources and progressive farmers of the district.

MR. HAULTAIN'S CHOICE

Premier Haultain has at last condescended to inform the people of the Territories that he has decided to confer his distinguished services upon the Province of Saskatchewan. While this has for some time been regarded as the probable course of the Honorable Gentleman, the assumption rested on the vague statement of Mr. Haultain that his choice would be decided by professional interests.

This may have been the primary reason for the lot falling upon Saskatchewan, but there are other considerations which doubtless contributed their share of interest to the selection of the Honorable Gentleman. In the first place the Province of Alberta, a constituency of which Mr. Haultain has represented in the local house for many years, did not display any undue anxiety to be favored by his further presence in an administrative capacity. The "boom" campaign, which was begun on his behalf by the Calgary Herald at an early stage of the game did a natural death at a very early age, and the course of that journal has not since been of a particularly comforting nature to the Premier.

"Bridled Breeding" Bennett too, returned from Oxford and London in a fury of adjectives and promises of agitations which gave Mr. Haultain a decided chill. Somewhere between the platforms of Oxford and the Territorial Capital it had dawned on Premier Haultain that what he wanted was not a popular agitation, but a decision of the Privy Council on the constitutional rights of the Federal Parliament to pass the Autonomy bills. It was clear therefore that trouble and trouble alone was the prospect if Haultain and Bennett were in the same herd.

Mr. Haultain too, went back on the Moose Jaw convention in a way which cost him any enthusiasm which might have been felt for him by the Alberta Conservatives, and the prospect for him in this Province became the unalluring opportunity to figure as third party on a platform of legal technicalities.

While it is within the undisputed right of Mr. Haultain to represent whom he can, when, where and how his constituents will permit him, his delay in announcing with which province he wished to be identified adds nothing to confidence in his claims or the strength of his case. If he was sincere in the opinions he now professes to have held, the plain course both of duty and of political wisdom, was to have chosen his ground and fought out the issue. That he declined to do so until shouldered out of Alberta by his supposed friends and erstwhile companions-in-arms is rather evidence that he lacked either in conviction or courage.

ATTENTION, VETERANS

The Imperial Service Medal Association of Alberta has been assigned a place in the Inaugural Parade which takes place at Edmonton on September 1st. It is desired that as large an attendance as possible of members will be present on that occasion. Every man who possesses a medal is asked to join the parade, and signify his intention by communicating with the Hon. Sec. Will Godson, Strathcona, giving the name of his regiment and his service. As it will add greatly to the appearance of the parade, it is requested that as many men as possible take part mounted and in uniform. It is further asked that those who can come on horse-back will please inform the secretary. This Association was formed about ten weeks ago and already numbers over one hundred members. The Indian Mutiny, the Fenian Raid, Indian Frontier, the Wolseley Expedition, the Nile Expedition, North West Rebellion, Matabele and Boer Wars, and many other medals are represented in the Association. The officers of the Association would like to see every man who has served in the army or navy and who holds an active service medal for same, join the Association. They take this opportunity of asking all such to communicate with Will Godson, Hon. Sec., Strathcona, who will be glad to furnish any information regarding the Association.

AN OLD COMMANDER

MAJOR GEN. SIR GEORGE FRENCH

Is Visiting the West—He Organized the North-West Mounted Police in 1874—Organized First Artillery Corps in Canada in 1871

(Free Press)

Major General Sir George Arthur French, who in 1871 formed the first artillery corp in Canada, and who in 1874 organized the North-West Mounted Police, arrived in Winnipeg on Tuesday from the east and will spend a few days here preparatory to making a trip to Banff and Calgary. General French was born 64 years ago in Roscommon, Ireland, and has been in military service all his life. He has served in Canada, Australia and India and for shorter periods in various portions of the British empire. The general is of fine military appearance, wears an iron grey moustache, and told most interesting stories to a representative of the Free Press regarding his famous trip across the plains to the Rockies many years ago. There were six companies of the North-West Mounted Police at the time with 300 enrolled men. The journey west was made along the international boundary and the return trip along a trail a little farther north. Barracks were provided for the men at Swan River in the far west, but the lumber used was fresh from the forest and the protection afforded was of little value.

Speaking of his residence in Australia, General French stated that the country had suffered greatly owing to the drought. The loss in sheep amounted to one-half of the total number owned prior to the drought, in addition to all the natural increase. The gold silver and lead mines were however, of great value, and the country had also other valuable assets.

In Canada he spent six years subsequent to Confederation, three years of which were spent in Western Canada. He has the highest opinion of the western plain as the scene of farming operations and believes it to be unsurpassed in the world as the home of intending immigrants. The change which has occurred in the country since 1874 he declares almost surpasses belief, no trace being left of the country as it was in the early days. A few of the friends of early days are left both in Winnipeg and the far west and these Sir George is most anxious to see.

It is said of him that the general is the most genial soldier in the British service and his acquaintances agree that he fully deserves the high position in the service which he has attained.

THE RED DEER MURDER CASE

Red Deer News: On Tuesday evening last the inhabitants were startled to hear that the body of a man had been found near the trail going north with signs of foul play upon the body.

Dr. Donovan held an inquest on Thursday in the Alexandra. The jury was G. Johnson, H. H. Drake, A. Monroe, A. B. Nash, T. Dunning, Jas. Gault, W. J. McLean acted as clerk for the inquiry. After the jury had been sworn and had viewed the remains and returned to the hall, Sgt. Motherhead, N.W.M.P., who had secured evidence, conducted the examination of witnesses under coroner and proceeded to call witnesses and examine them regarding their knowledge of the various aspects of the case.

Henry Dumas deposed to the finding of the body near the trail three miles north of town.

Nell Moffin, town constable, got word, informed the coroner, and the coroner, with witness, undertaker, and others went out, and after noticing the position and state of the body, brought the remains to town.

H. G. Stone, undertaker, gave evidence as to the state of remains, clothing, etc., and expressed the opinion that the head had been nearly severed from the body. The head was also battered.

The hat picked up on the trail was produced also hadly battered with large holes in it, and containing clotted blood and hair.

The widow came forward and recognized the hat as her husband's, but it had no hole in it when he left home. Other witnesses examined were Clara Stone, J. Holliday, Thos. Gault, G. Bentley, Mrs. Christine Hanson, widow of the deceased, Ole Brobeck, who is held in custody, G. Mills, Alderman Peterson, John Quay, and Mrs. Collison and Parsons. The witness Ole Brobeck was the last man seen in the company of the deceased, they leaving town in the one rig. Hanson had sold a horse the same day, and probably had $80 or thereabouts of his person. Brobeck swore he had no gun or firearm in the rig, but three men afterwards swore that they saw a double barreled gun in his buggy just before leaving town.

The medical evidence was startling, their report being that they had held a post mortem examination, and that the back portion of the skull was in fragments, that upon minute and careful examination numerous shots were found, some flattened, also wads of felt, etc. showing unmistakably that the deceased had been shot at close quarters. Coroner said he would not address the jury, but he knew he had six sensible men before him. He thought the case had been well worked up by the police, especially in the short time since finding the body. The jury retired, and shortly returned, and handed in the following verdict: "That Hans Peter Hanson came to his death between the 1st and 8th days of August, 1905, through a gunshot wound at the hands of a person or persons unknown."

On Friday morning Ole Brobeck, who was held in custody on suspicion, was brought before Magistrate Fulmer, when he was remanded for eight days in order that further evidence might be secured. On Saturday the prisoner was removed to the Calgary jail awaiting further trial.

Seven of the Twelve Clauses Have Now Been Accepted.

Portsmouth, Aug. 18.—After discussing all morning and part of the afternoon the clause whereby Russia agrees to limit her naval strength in the Far East, no decision was reached and the matter was deferred. Article 12, giving Japanese fishermen the right to fish in Siberian waters was accepted. Seven out of the 12 articles have been accepted, all others being deferred. Little hope is expressed here today of peace resulting from the present negotiations.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN ITEMS.

(From the Reporter)

Those citizens who have entered the mounted troop now actively drilling are rapidly becoming proficient and when properly accoutred will doubtless make a brave show on the 1st. Some of them we believe make no secret that at first they felt somewhat sore, both mentally and physically, but they are getting over it.

Grading is proceeding rapidly and the eastern end of Inglis avenue is now reached. This piece between the creek and the level ground on Inglis avenue is very uneven, and there are a great many hollows to fill. It is estimated that no less than 8,000 yards are required for this. The gang on Chabot's farm are halfway through and those working across Alon's farm are almost on to the Victoria trail. North-east of the Fort by Albert Thorn's farm many heavy fills have been necessary on the soft ground of the school section. The bridge work is to be commenced very soon, and we hear that permission has been obtained to form a camp on Major Griesbach's land on the other side of the river.

Amongst the visitors to the fair at the Fort on Wednesday last were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown of Agricola. They left home about 9.30 a.m. accompanied by their two little children. On their return home in the evening they were astounded to find that their house had been burnt to the ground, everything being destroyed and all that they saved was what they stood up in. It is a remarkable occurrence and the origin of the fire is at present inexplicable, as both Mr. and Mrs. Brown aver that they left no fire burning. The outbreak does not appear to have been noticed by any of the neighbors, as those likely to have observed it were also down at the Fort. The house was we hear partly insured, but there is a considerable loss sustained by the destruction of furniture and clothing.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

—Janisfall Free Lance: The big bear mentioned last week did not long disturb the neighborhood. On Tuesday night Mr. Dill fired a shot at his bearship and from the sounds thought he had wounded him. On Saturday the body of the slain beast was discovered in the woods in an advanced state of decomposition. It was judged to weigh about 400 lbs. Some berry pickers on Saturday reported having seen another bear, accompanied by two cubs, and on Monday a cub, weighing 150 lbs., is said to have been shot.

—Cargary Herald: The well defined rumors of crookedness in the closing game of the ball tournament between Fernie and Calgary have resulted in a very general demand for an investigation. The Herald has received a number of letters making very serious charges. That a large sum of money passed to certain individuals who bet heavily on Fernie is certain. The assertion is freely made by those who pretend to know that they can prove that men connected with the promotion of the tournament, and the employment of the umpire, won large sums on the defeat of the home team. Much of the criticism is based upon the use of a man as umpire who was arrested during the late gambling scandal as the man who nominally held the privilege for operating gambling games on the exhibition grounds.

THE RUSSIAN ASSEMBLY

WILL HAVE LIMITED POWERS.

The Czar Issues a Flowery Manifesto to His Subjects.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 18.—The Czar today announced his grant to the people of Russia of a national Consultative Assembly, to be formed by elected representatives from the whole of Russia. In the course of the manifesto he says, "The empire of Russia is formed and strengthened by the indelible solidarity of the Emperor with the people and the people with the Emperor. This concord of the Emperor and people is the great moral force which has created Russia in the course of centuries by protecting her from all misfortunes and all attacks and has constituted up to the present time a pledge of unity and promoted independence and integrity, material well-being and intellectual development." After this curious preamble the manifesto goes on to define the powers and prerogatives of the Assembly, which are strictly limited. In some quarters this granting of constitutional reform is regarded as a sop to the people preparatory to a Russian back down to the Japanese demands.

THINKS STRATHCONA SHOULD DECORATE.

Strathcona Chronicle: Two weeks today Alberta becomes a full-blown province. This only happens once in a life-time, and should therefore be the Red Letter Day of its existence.

Edmonton, as the temporary capital, is going to do herself proud on that occasion, and the townfolk, board of trade and council all deserve great credit for the push and vim they are displaying in the matter.

Unless the board of trade and council of Strathcona, have a big surprise tucked away somewhere it would appear as if Strathcona will just jog along in its sleepy way, taking no count of current events of importance. The council has held its last regular session for the month, as also has the board of trade, and not one word has been said at either meeting to indicate that something will be done in the way of celebration on that ill-fated day.

We do not advocate a vast expenditure of the taxpayers' money, but seeing that the Governor and Lady Gray with suite, Cabinet Ministers of the Federal Government, and no doubt thousands of strangers will land in Strathcona during the next two weeks, it is necessary for the reputation of the town that something be done, and there is no time to lose. The thousands of visitors from the south will all land here right on our main street, and at present they would see a stretch of paper-strewn, dirty-looking thoroughfare. From here visitors will go to Edmonton, and let what a contrast; that city will be decked out in holiday attire from end to end, urban and suburban.

British Political Situation

London Times: The case is very nearly parallel with that of the Liberal Government in 1895. No doubt Lord Rosebery and his colleagues had other reasons for resigning. But Mr. Balfour is not without such motives at present, for the strongest of them all is the feeling that a leader cannot rely upon his followers to second his efforts at inconvenience to themselves. Let no one suppose that a rehabilitating vote puts the Government in the exact position it occupied before defeat. The blow tells though it may not be immediately fatal. It is not the smallest part of the mortification inflicted upon Mr. Balfour that his opponents will give him no credit for public motives should he elect to carry on the Government of the country. But strong as are the reasons, personal and parliamentary, on the side of Mr. Balfour's resignation, the public reasons for his retention of office for some time longer perhaps outweigh them. In any case it is certain that Mr. Balfour will subordinate all merely personal feelings to consideration of public policy and national advantage.

Two Galician boys are in the police cell for stealing flasks valued at $750, from the Edmonton Wine and Spirit Co. They are also charged with relieving a Galician woman of a bottle of whiskey and $25. One of the boys is about 14 years of age and the other about 13. They came up for trial this afternoon.

A FUR MANUFACTURER

FUR PARLORS ON NAMAYO AVE

A Splendid Collection of Furs and Fur
Garments—Up-To-Date Work Done

In this country of furs, where every year the traders bring thousands of dollars worth of furs to the city, it is important that there should be a first class fur manufacturer, that the skins of animals may be made into garments right in the city, and Mr. Charles Wittman, of Namayo avenue and Sixth street, fills the bill. He is a fur manufacturer of thirty years experience in one of Montreal's largest fur houses.

Mr. Wittman is a first class designer, and as he gives close personal attention to every fur garment he turns out it is certain to give satisfaction and to be first class in every particular. He has a fine stock of furs on hand for sale and at the present time has some beautiful coats, cloaks and jackets made to order.

Among his collection is a silver fox stole, an Alaska seal jacket, several Persian lamb coats and several open cloaks lined with fur. Also some beautiful mink and beaver muffs and stoles.

Mr. Wittman also keeps on hand a good supply of furs to be made to order. His supply of mink, martin, otter, ermine, beaver and muskrat are of the choicest quality and will make the most beautiful fur garments for ladies or gentlemen. All kinds of repairing of fur garments is attended to carefully and promptly.

their notions and refusing to work. They are evidently looking for a warmer climate, a paradise without the curse of labor, a garden of Eden where they need toil for neither food nor clothing, and are so dense and ignorant that they deliberately act on this primitive notion. They cast of their garments in imitation of Adam and Eve, stating that they are following their example.

"The men and women are not generally husbands and wives. They recognize no such ties. They call themselves brothers and sisters. It is difficult to conceive a more curious notion than the one that forms an explanation of this movement—return in reality to a state of nature without even the instincts of the higher animals. One can scarcely call such a concerted movement the act of the insane, yet belief that will cause these modesty of their kind is scarcely women to overcome all the native shame."

"The men have been judging of un-sound mind by the local authorities and will be taken to Brandon. The women and children will be sent back to the village."

"The Doukhobors residing in town disown the party and are unable to explain their movements."

Masqueraders Were of Un-sound Mind

A Free Press correspondent writes from Yorkton:

The latest example of Doukhobor fanaticism, as noted in despatches to the Free Press from Yorkton, is in some respects the most puzzling. The facts are briefly these. Under the leadership of some men who have already given the authorities trouble, a band of men, women and children, 16 men, 16 women and 5 children, collected from various villages north and northeast of Yorkton, marched to within two miles of the town, drawing a wagon load of rough provisions. At the foot of the Little White and some two miles from the town, the whole party disrobed and made a bonfire of their clothes, burning the wagon at the same time. They then proceeded with the intention of marching in a state of nature, through the town. Word was sent in by telephone to the police, and Sergeant Junest, acting with commendable despatch, sent constables to arrest the movement.

"It appears that a young girl of 18 or 20 refused to remove her clothing and was stripped by the older women, there being three old women in the party besides a girl of 12 or 13 years of age."

"When your correspondent arrived on the scene, the Doukhobors were lined up in three rows by men, some by women. A Mounted Policeman prevented the further progress of the party. They were chanting hymns and were by no means disconcerted by the group of citizens who had come out to view the extraordinary spectacle and assist the police. It was a pitiful sight. The women looked worn out with marching and insufficient food."

"The police had sent to the town for blankets and when these arrived the citizens commenced to dress the Doukhobors in the conventional garb of the Indian. The Doukhobors resisted, the women clinging to the men, but the men were finally dragged away and the women and children loosed into a drag. Several times before the men were all in the second drag, the women, throwing their blankets off, jumped to the ground. They were soon put back and when the men saw the women being moved off they quickly mounted the drag and were taken in."

"They chanted hymns all the way in. The men were lodged in the cells and the women and children in the court room at the police headquarters. It was noticeable that though the men threw their blankets off during the day, they were glad enough to draw them round their shoulders in the cool early morning hours. They refused to wear or eat anything which has in any way been in contact with machinery. They are being fed on porridge—the only thing they will eat."

"Apparently they are people whose views are too peculiar even for the Doukhobors, for they have been driven from the villages for indulging in

We have a contented little community of our own, that is not worried by outside conditions. The wholesome, country-town life that we live, tells in the quality of our work.

Every employee in my factory has his whole heart in his work. From the oldest workman, who started with me when I had a small room for a factory, a big bunch of enthusiasm and a high idea of quality, down to the lad who just joined us the other day, every one is putting the best that is in him into his work.

Under such conditions it is no wonder that my Pharaoh is the best ten cent smoke on the market. We are all working with the one object—to produce the best cigar possible.

I go to Cuba every year and buy the best tobacco produced. I know that every leaf that comes to my factory is right. My workmen see that every roll they give it will help make it a perfect, even-burning sample. Its a combination that's hard to beat.

NEW MILL AT C. N. R. TRACKS

A Model in Neatness and Order—A Modern Sash and Door Factory—New and Up-to-Date Lumber Shed

A representative of the Bulletin visited the new factory of W. H. Clark and Co. down near the C. N. R. right-of-way. This firm made a wise move in selecting a site on the railway for the new factory, which is now in full running order and is one of the best in the west.

The main factory building is 70 feet by 100 feet and is a very substantial structure in fact is the only mill in the west rated as a standard mill structure. There are no joists or scantling in the frame, it being all built of timbers and plank.

The heavy machinery is on the first floor of the factory consisting of the planer, heavy sticker, turning lathe and rip and crosscut circulars. On the second floor are the shapers, small planers, stickers, band saws, mortise machines, panel raisers, sanders and other machines for the manufacture of sash, doors and other builder's supplies. A most complete blower system takes the shavings from every machine and feeds them automatically to the fire in the boiler room. When the supply is too great the surplus is stored in a brick fire-proof vault in the furnace room where they are absolutely safe from fire.

The mill is whitewashed inside and the floor being kept clear of shavings the result is one of the brightest, cleanest factories in the country.

The machinery is driven by 150 horse power high speed Robt. Armstrong engine, and the boiler room is fitted up with two 60 horse power boilers, with space left for a third when required.

The ware-house is a large building 48 feet by 96 feet and in it are stored the products of the factory. Sash and doors of all kinds are found here. The glazing and ciling rooms are also in this building. Also a very large stock of plain and fancy glass of all kinds. A stock of building paper, hard wall plaster, plaster-of-paris, plasterer's hair, screen doors and windows and other building supplies are kept on hand and furnished to contractors.

It is their intention to erect an office building at the front of the premises 40 ft. by 40 ft. just as soon as it can be arranged for. A large lumber shed is in the yard, arranged in compartments for piling dressed lumber on end. This is a very convenient method of piling as the man who puts it in on takes it out never has to reach up and the work of one man is saved. The cross beams around the compartments are placed at regular heights so that the length of the lumber can be determined at a glance by observing what beam it reaches up to. In one end of this building smaller compartments of a similar nature are arranged for piling mouldings in the same way. This is the only shed of its kind nearer than Vancouver. It is a substantial building with a galvanized iron roof.

The mill yard is piled with British Columbia cedar, fir and spruce. A few two inch plank 20 feet long and 34 inches wide without a knot or flaw gives some idea of the quality of its timber. The mill has many safeguards against fire, one being a brick base for the smoke stack, the metal beginning above the roof of the building. The engine and boiler rooms are built of solid brick and have metal doors.

In the warehouse, mill and lumber shed, neatly printed signs designate that everything has a place and the closest examination proves that every thing is in its place. System and order are evident in every part of the business and the manager, Mr. W. H. Clark gives evidence of excellent business ability and a thorough system of management in the conduct of the business.

The stable is back of the warehouse and is a model of neatness and convenience, and will accommodate six horses, the names of which are above their stalls as it seems to be the principle with this firm to appeal to the intelligence of both man and beast.

The mill yard is being gravelled and generally fixed up, and when the office building is erected the building will be one of the best arranged in the west.

The firm also has a branch yard at the corner of Eighth street and Jasper avenue where a complete stock of builder's supplies is kept on hand.

Mr. W. H. Clark began this business on Jasper avenue in 1897, and his premises there becoming too small he moved some years ago to First Street where his mill did business until the completion of the present mill a few months ago, so that his business has grown with the city. His present location is one of the very best and he has probably made his last move in that particular, though the business will continue to expand with the growth of the city.

—Strathcona schools re-open Monday.

—Lodge Liberal convention will be held on Tuesday.

—Strathcona Liberals meet in convention on the 20th.

—R. Lemarchand will open his store today in the Duggendorfen block on Jasper avenue west.

—Tickets for the inaugural ball are selling rapidly and those desiring to attend would do well to secure tickets early.

—Mr. Fred McLeay, of the Banner Mine, has received the contract for supplying the Fort Saskatchewan Mounted Police barracks with coal.

—Winnipeg, Aug. 17.—The mounted police will furnish an escort of two hundred men and four field pieces for the celebrations at Edmonton and Regina.

—Mr. E. C. Benson and wife, of Strathcona, left on Tuesday with a pack train of six horses for Lesser Slave Lake. Mr. Benson expects to establish a cattle ranch at the lake.

—Mr. M. Schadek, of Stony Plain, cut his fall wheat on August 7th and is going to have it threshed at once and used for seed this year. A number of his neighbors are purchasing it from him to sow at once.

—J. Naiman, who was wanted in this city for obtaining $50 from D. Grierson under false pretences, has been arrested in Calgary on a similar charge preferred against him at Westcliffe.

—Calgary Albertan: B. B. Bennett will, without doubt, be the Conservative candidate in Calgary. To an Albertan representative he said that he proposed to run for Calgary if he received the nomination of the convention.

—Grand Trunk Pacific Engineer Mitchell left with his survey party for the east this morning. He goes east to where Engineer Armstrong began locating the final survey, and from there he will work back to Edmonton.

—Tenders are advertised for the concrete piers for the Strathcona water tower. They are to form the base for the steel truss piers of the tower. Tenders are to be in the hands of the city engineer by Monday evening next.

—The C. P. R. has issued a circular to all their station agents calling their attention to the danger incurred by children playing in and around the station, and instructing them to allow children in the station or station yard unless accompanied by a parent or guardian.

—The brick work on the new Strathcona school building in the west end is nearing completion and the roof is being put on. The structure promises to make a very imposing appearance and to be a credit to the town and to the contractors Messrs. Thawley & Watson.

—Mr. W. Clark, of Horse Hill, brought in some samples of turkey red fall wheat which he cut on August 8th. He has about 200 acres and it will yield about 35 bushels to the acre. A sample of Mr. Clark's wheat is in the B. C. window and speaks for itself. No better fall wheat can be grown a where.

—It took five men and two teams to handle a plow on Jasper avenue this morning. Two drove the horses one held the handles and the other two used their combined strength to induce the plow to keep in the ground. They turned a pretty fair furrow.

—It cost a young man $5 at the police court last night for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk on McDougall street. Two more cases are coming up this afternoon for riding on the sidewalks. It doesn't pay to ride your bike on the walks. Better keep to the street, if it is rough.

—Every day brings the work of railroad construction nearer the city. One camp is expected in tonight. Grading will soon be in full blast around the station site. The work of erecting the station will be begun at once. Every day gives further evidence of a passenger service on the C.N.R. for Christmas.

—Panaka Herald: The mayor has declared Friday, September 1, a civic holiday on account of the inauguration ceremonies which take place at Edmonton on that date. The business men in town are unanimous that it should be so observed, and we understand, an endeavor is to be made to have a car reserved for Panaka's exclusive use on that date.

—The young men's meeting will be held in Sandison's hall tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock. All young men are cordially invited to attend. At this meeting it will be decided whether the meetings will be held in future at 4:15 p.m. or 8:15. A Young Men's Christian Association representative from Ontario will address the meeting tomorrow evening.

—Reports have come in that the Stony Indians from Lac Ste Anne and White Horse lake are destroying a great many moose, sheep and goats in the foothills. One Indian is said to have killed fifty-four moose last winter. The animals are killed principally for their hides. It is said they are also killing a great many moose calves and cows, also the young of the sheep and goats. This wanton destruction of these animals will soon deplete the supply.

—There are several vacant lots on Jasper avenue that would stand some cleaning up before September first. Sticks, dead limbs, and weeds cover some of these and if the owners would spend a little time on them they could be made presentable at a very slight cost and the result would greatly add to the appearance of the city. If the streets and parks committee of the city council would have some of the weeds cut on the side streets it would also help. Let the motto for September be "Clean up."

—A series of lectures on the destinies of the human race, illustrated by a large colored chart will begin on Sunday, Aug. 20th, at 4 and 8 p.m., and continue each night (except Saturday) for four weeks at 8 p.m. In the Gospel tent at the corner of Namayo and Seventh street east. The world of God will be closely looked into in connection with the Lord's Day, grave, paradise, heaven and hell, their character, location, and what part of man goes to each. It will be shown that Hades never means the grave. Mr. J. J. Reuss will conduct these lectures. The tent is floored and heated, and the seats comfortable. The meetings are free and all are invited.

—Strathcona Plaindealer: "While nominally the Liberals of Alberta have not yet named their leader for the approaching Provincial political contest, he was virtually appointed when the presidency of the convention was conferred upon Mr. A. C. Rutherford. It is a foregone conclusion that Mr. Rutherford will be called upon to form a Government for the Province of Alberta and upon him will devolve the responsibility of leading the Liberal forces in the first election. Strathcona is proud to number among her citizens one called to so distinguished a duty as that of organizing the first Government of the new province. Mr. Rutherford is to be congratulated upon the honor that has been bestowed upon him as a tribute to his integrity and qualifications as a public man. His modesty and retiring disposition are too well known to require comment and it is well known that from the beginning of his public career to the present time Mr. Rutherford has been pushed into positions by his friends who recognize his qualifications."
